

Jerahmeel Fandrall B. Chen

He is the Chief Innovation Officer in of the National Development Company – Philippine Innovation Hub last May 2023. Prior to this appointment, he held the positions of Executive Vice President and Director – International Relations at AISEC Alumni Philippines, overseeing general activities and managing international relations. Concurrently, he served as the Director – Investments and Business Development at Ashtree Block Ventures and later became the President of CAFIS Inc.

Throughout his professional journey, Mr. Chen has actively engaged in various areas such as Strategic Development, Business Process Engineering, Debt & Corporate Restructuring, Rebranding, Innovative and Creative Applications for Marketing & Finance, Investment Banking, Venture Capital, and Financial Engineering.

In his current capacity as the Chief Innovation Officer at the National Development Company, Jerahmeel Chen is responsible for driving strategic development initiatives in innovation. This involves organizing impactful events and conferences tailored to benefit the startup industry. Additionally, he leads the formulation of groundbreaking policies that serve as guiding principles for the operations of the Philippine Innovation Hub. Essentially, his role revolves around spearheading innovative initiatives and strategies that contribute to the growth and progress within the country's innovation ecosystem.

Mr. Jerahmeel Chen is a holder of a Bachelor of Science degree in Management Accountancy with additional coursework towards a Masters in Entrepreneurship.